

MY WILDLIFE WONDERS

BISON

DID YOU KNOW?

BABY BISON ARE CALLED "RED DOGS" BECAUSE OF THEIR BRIGHT ORANGE FUR!

WILDLIFE FACTS

Conservation Status: Near threatened

Diet: Bison are herbivores that eat grasses, sedges, forbs, browse, lichens, shrubs, leaves and bark when available.

VISIT HPCONSERVATION.COM/MY-WILDLIFE-WONDERS/BISON TO LEARN MORE!

TRUE or FALSE?

Guess whether these bison facts are true or false! Check your answers below.

Bison are the largest land animals in North America today. True False

Bison are carnivores that hunt other animals for food. True False

Baby bison are usually born in the springtime when grass grows. True False

Bison spend most of their lives by themselves and don't form groups. True False

Bison can use their heads to push aside snow to find food. True False

BISON VOCABULARY

Match the word to its definition! Check your answers below.

Word Pool

BEARD GRAZE RUMINANT
MOLT TATANKA WALLOW

Rolling in dirt or mud and making a shallow pit.

Shedding thick winter for a lighter summer coat.

An animal that chews its food, swallows it, then chews it again.

To eat grass and plants slowly while moving along.

The Lakota & Dakota word for bison.

The long, shaggy hair hanging under a bison's chin.

